

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Greg Tilton Joins Signature as SVP of Operations

New York, NY- March 1, 2014 - Signature Systems Group, LLC a worldwide leader in the manufacture of modular flooring, temporary roadways, event turf and carpet, and portable fencing products, is excited to announce that Greg Tilton will be joining their team as Senior Vice President of Operations.

Greg comes to Signature with more than 20 years of operational leadership experience in manufacturing and distribution across the US, Europe, Asia, and the Middle East, with a proven track record of improving the efficiency of large-scale operations. Based out of Signature's Orlando manufacturing facility, Mr Tilton will oversee Signature's manufacturing and global distribution network.

"Greg has been working as an interim Operations Leader for the past two months and he took to the job perfectly," said Signature President and COO, Seth Gordon, explaining the decision to bring Greg onboard full time. "Greg's reputation for excellence and innovative thinking has proven well-deserved: he's already played a significant role in all aspects of our company's operations. We're thrilled to welcome Greg and look forward to what I anticipate will be his significant contributions to Signature's operational efficiency and productivity worldwide."

For his part, Mr. Tilton had this to add: "I am excited to join an organization as dynamic as Signature Systems and to support their drive for operational excellence."

Signature Systems Group, LLC is based in New York, and is a worldwide leader in the manufacture of specialty flooring and matting systems. Signature's products are available worldwide directly and through a network of dealers, distributors and agents.
